

Team building

Your team can benefit from spending time together away from the office. As team leader, you can take your team away from the boardroom for a break from the norm. We offer a chance to spend some time in nature, have some fun and use new experiences to get them thinking differently and positively. Guide your company in the right direction.

Just 90 minutes from Richards Bay, Umkhumbi Lodge offers an overnight breakaway with opportunities for your team to get to know each other and their capabilities. We include team build activities, sundown cocktails, 'pub' quiz and dinner. Stay overnight in our spacious air-conditioned rooms. Breakfast in the morning followed by a final team build session or morning conference. You will book the whole lodge for your group. 2 cocktails (or mocktails for the non-drinkers) per person included. Cash bar or a drinks budget can be arranged.
